

Sullivan Scholarship Application

The Sullivan Scholarship is offered to incoming first-year students of THE Women's College of Brenau University. This scholarship is highly competitive, and awards $10,000 per academic year for a total of $40,000 towards tuition and fees. Students applying for this prestigious award will have had previous experience in community service or social innovation. Sullivan Scholars will pursue impactful change in social programming and community involvement with close faculty mentorship throughout their undergraduate program.

To apply, please complete the form below and provide:

- A personal resume including education, employment, and extra-curricular experience
- A short essay of no more than 1500 words demonstrating a reflection on your personal contribution to making a positive impact in your community. This should include the role this contribution has had in your personal development and continuing commitment to service.
- Two letters of recommendation from non-family members with emphasis on the applicant's personal character, as well as commitment to and experience with service-related activities.

Please submit all required documents together via email or USPS to:
